Movement VIII · Who Keeps You in Line?

They Took Him

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ACTS 18:24 But a certain Jew, Apollos by name, an Alexandrian by people, an eloquent man, came into Ephesus, being powerful in the Scriptures.

25 This one having been taught by mouth in the way of the Lord, and glowing in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things about the Lord, understanding only the baptism of John.

26 And this one began to speak boldly in the synagogue. And hearing him Priscilla and Aquila took him and more accurately expounded the way of God to him.

27 And he having intended to go through into Achaia, having been encouraged, the brothers wrote to the disciples to welcome him; who, arriving, helped much the ones who were believing through grace.

28 For he powerfully confuted the Jews publicly, proving through the Scriptures Jesus to be the Christ.

READ ALONG: Acts 18:24–28; Matthew 18:15; Galatians 6:1–2

Follow along

1. What did Priscilla and Aquila notice, and what did they do?

2. How did Apollos's ministry go afterward (verses 27–28)?

3. What is the goal of correction in Matthew 18:15?

4. What warning does Galatians 6:1 give the one doing the correcting?

5. When has someone corrected you in a way that helped?

6. When have you seen correction done in a way that only did harm?

7. Before you correct someone, what would "considering yourself" ask you to look at?

THE ONE QUESTION

When you correct someone, who else is listening?

- 1. Is there someone you've talked about whom you've never talked to?
- 2. What would it take to correct in meekness this week?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
