You Intended Evil Against Me

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

GENESIS 50:20 And you, you intended evil against me, but God meant it for good, in order to make it as it is this day, to keep a great many people alive.

READ ALONG: Genesis 45:1–8; Genesis 50:15–21

Follow along

1. Why were the brothers afraid after their father died?

2. How did Joseph respond to their message?

3. What did Joseph say about the evil they did?

4. What did he promise to do for them?

5. What wrong done to you are you still waiting to see God use?

6. When have you been afraid someone was holding a grudge?

7. What is the difference between "it didn't matter" and "you intended evil against me, but God meant it for good"?

THE ONE QUESTION

What would it mean for you to say, "For am I in the place of God?"

- 1. Whom could you comfort and speak to their heart this week?
- 2. Whom are you still waiting to pay you back?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
