Movement X · The Way Across

At the King's Table Continually

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

2 SAMUEL 9:7 And David said to him, Do not be afraid, for doing I will do with you kindness because of your father Jonathan. And I will give back to you all the land of your father Saul. And you shall eat bread at my table continually.

READ ALONG: 2 Samuel 9:1–13

Follow along

1. Why did David go looking for someone from Saul's house?

2. How did Mephibosheth describe himself?

3. What did David give him, and where did he eat?

4. Why do you think the chapter ends by mentioning his feet again?

5. When have you felt like a "dead dog" at someone's table?

6. Who sought you out when you expected nothing?

7. Whom would you have to seat at your table "as they are," without fixing them first?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Who in your enemy's house could you seek out for kindness?

- 1. Who is in Lo-debar, far from the table, waiting to be sent for?
- 2. What would "continually" look like, not just once?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
