The Older Brother Outside

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

LUKE 15:31 But he said to him, Child, you are always with me, and all of my things are yours.

32 But to be merry and it was right to rejoice, for this brother of yours was dead, and lived again; and being lost, also he was found.

READ ALONG: Luke 15:11–32 (focus 25–32)

Follow along

1. Where was the father while the feast went on?

2. What did he call the older son, and what did he say was his?

3. How did the father change "this son of yours" into "this brother of yours"?

4. Why might Jesus have left the ending open?

5. When has someone come out to you while you stood outside?

6. Tell about a time you were the one who went out to someone. What happened?

7. Who are you waiting to come in, and have you gone out to them?

THE ONE QUESTION

Who are you willing to leave the feast to go and find?

- 1. Whom do you need to start calling "my brother" or "my sister" again?
- 2. What is already yours that you've been too angry to enjoy?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
