No Longer as a Slave

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

PHILEMON 1:16 no longer as a slave, but beyond a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, and how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

READ ALONG: Philemon 1–25 (focus 8–21)

Follow along

1. Who was Onesimus, and why was he going back?

2. How did Paul make his request to Philemon?

3. What did Paul offer to do about any debt?

4. What did Paul ask Philemon to see Onesimus as?

5. When has someone stood in the gap for you?

6. Whom are you being asked to receive back?

7. What would it cost you to treat someone you've ranked below you as an equal?

THE ONE QUESTION

Whom are you being asked to receive as a brother, not as what they used to be?

- 1. Whose debt could you say "charge this to me" about?
- 2. Who is "useful" now whom you still call "worthless"?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
