Not a Respector of Faces

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ACTS 10:34 And opening his mouth, Peter said, Truly I see that God is not a respector of faces, 35 but in every nation the one fearing Him and working righteousness is acceptable to Him.

READ ALONG: Acts 10:9–35

Follow along

1. What did Peter see, and how did he answer?

2. What did the voice say to him?

3. What did Peter say God had shown him, in verse 28?

4. Who was Cornelius, and why was entering his house a big step?

5. What upbringing have you had to unlearn about a group of people?

6. When did God show you that someone you'd called "common" wasn't?

7. Whose house would be hardest for you to walk into?

THE ONE QUESTION

Whom have you called common that God has made clean?

- 1. Whose house have you never entered?
- 2. Say "I myself am also a man" to someone who puts you above them, or below.

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
