

LUKE 15:31-32

But he said to him, Child, you are always with me, and all of my things are yours. But to be merry and it was right to rejoice, for this brother of yours was dead, and lived again; and being lost, also he was found.

Who are you willing to leave the feast to go and find?

WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?

WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?

Who are you willing to leave the feast to go and find?

But he said to him, Child, you are always with me, and all of my things are yours. But to be merry and it was right to rejoice, for this brother of yours was dead, and lived again; and being lost, also he was found.
